Proceedings of the Republican State Convention.

FORKER AGAIN AT ITS HEAD.

Ex-Speaker Lampson is Nominated for Lieutenant Governor; Judge Dickman nominated for Supreme Judge; John C. Brown, State Treasurer; Urban H. Best for Supreme Court Clerk; D. K. Watson, Attorney General; John Hancock, School Commissioner, and William Hahn for Board of Public Works.

COLUMBUS, O., June 26.—The second and important day and session of the Republican state convention was called yesterday at 10:30 o'clock by Congress.

 Robert Novin, of Dayton, presented Congressman H. L. Morey, of Butler county, as a candidate for governor.

Ex-Governor J. B. Neil, of Franklin county, was presented by ex-Attorney General George E. Nash.

Wilson Vance, the candidate from the natural gas region, was presented by W. J. Fisher of Hancock county.

There was a stir of interest when Fetus Walters, of Logan county, came forward to present Congressman Robert P. Kennedy, of Bellefontaine.

Gen. Asa Jones, of Mahoning county, was handsomely presented to the convention by Hon. William McKinley. Maj. McKinley was received with cheer that lasted for two minutes.

Gen. B. R. Dawes, of Marietta, was presented by Gen. C. H. Grosvenor, congressman from the Fifteenth district.

The other candidate is Judge Joseph O'Neal, of Warren county.

The nominating speeches were flushed at 12:30, and the balloting commenced.

First Ballot.

The first ballot was as follows: Forker, 267; Kennedy, 127; Dawes, 96; O'Neal, 59; Lampson, 89; Jones, 99; Morey, 47; Vance, 45; Neil, 37; Gibson, 23; Bishnell, 1.

There were 928 delegates in the convention, 415 votes being necessary to effect a nomination. Every vote for Forker on the first ballot was loudly applauded, but the convention was not stampeded, as there was an evident disposition to give all candidates a fair chance.

Forker Nominated.

On the second ballot Forker captured the convention and all the delegations rushed to get into line. The friends of all the other candidates moved to make Forker's nomination unanimous, and it was done. This makes the fourth nomination Forker has had for governor.

A committee consisting of Maj. McKinley, Congressman Grosvenor and Mayor Gardner, of Cleveland, was sent to inform Governor Forker of his nomination. They returned in twenty minutes with Governor Forker, whose action was made permanent chairman of the convention. All the officers of the temporary organization were continued. These officers were: Chairman, Hon. W. C. Cooper, of Mount Vernon; secretary, Edl. Reise, of Cincinnati; sergeant-at-arms, J. B. Allen, of Athens.

The resolutions initiating nominating speeches to five and seconding speeches to three minutes were applauded.

The Platform.

Congressman G. H. Grosvenor, of Athens, came forward in a storm of applause to read the platform. He said that the report was the unanimous work of the committee. The tariff plank, the pension and recompensing of the pension and recompensing of service pension bill, were received with cordial kindness. When the resolution endorsing Forker's name was reached, there was another outburst. The promised tempest over an enactment of the civil service law was avoided by simply endorsing the utterances of the National convention of 1888 on that subject.

The Platform.

The Republican party of Ohio, in convention assembled, hereby announce the following platform of principles:

We renew our adherence to all the principles, so clearly and strongly enunciated by the Republican national convention of 1888, and especially to the principles of protection in its twofold meaning and operation; protection to every American citizen at home, in all parts of our country; protection to every American citizen abroad, in every land, on every sea; protection to every American citizen in the exercise of all his political rights and privileges; protection to American industry and labor against the industry and labor of the world.

We heartily approve and endorse the administration of Benjamin Harrison, president of the United States, and pledge him our cordial support in the discharge of the duties devolving upon him as chief magistrate of the nation; and especially do we commend the just and liberal policy of the party but in carrying out the policy of the party to the soldiers of the Union.

3. That we favor the passage by congress at its next session of a proper and equitable service pension bill for all honorably discharged Union soldiers and seamen of the late war.

4. We demand a full and adequate protection for the wool-growing industry, which will in due time give to the American wool-growers the American market for all the wool required by American wants. We endorse the provision of the bill on the subject passed by the senate at the last session of congress.

5. We heartily endorse the decision of the secretary of the treasury, who says the duty on worsted is most detestable at the same rates upon woollen goods, thereby benefiting our manufacturing and wool industry.

6. We congratulate the people of Ireland on the progress of their struggle for Home Rule, and in this connection we advise the course of President Harrison in selecting for hon. position in the diplomatic service our emigrant and representative Irish-American citizens.

7. RESOLVED, That we heartily indorse the administration of our gallant and able governor, J. B. Forker, as wise, pure and patriotic. His promptness in responding to the call of suffering humanity has endeared him to the hearts of all generous people. His splendid administration of the finances of the state, so unmanaged by the last Democratic administration, bringing order out of chaos, replenishing a depleted treasury, re-establishing the credit of the state, and, while at the same time reducing the rate of taxation to a figure lower than it had been for half a century, entitle him to the gratitude of the people and mark him as one of the most brilliant of our governors.

8. RESOLVED, That we indorse the wise laws passed by the Republican legislature in regard to the liquor traffic, and pledge the party to keep abreast of public opinion upon that subject.

RESOLVED, That we send greeting to our honored senator, Sherman, visiting in foreign lands, and assure him of the great confidence we have in his wise and patriotic leadership, his loyalty and devotion to the high principles of Republicanism, the grand doctrine of protection of American industry, an honest ballot, and a sound and equal currency, and assure him a hearty welcome to Ohio upon his return to the United States.

The Opera House Crowded.

The seating capacity of the opera house was not adequate, and the convention was interrupted for five minutes while the sergeant-at-arms ejected from the seats belonging to some of the delegates persons who had no right to them. The roll of counties was then called for the purpose of having the candidates named.

Foraker's Biography.

Joseph Benson Forker, Republican candidate for governor, was born in Hainsboro, O., July 5, 1846. When sixteen years of age he enlisted in the Eighty-ninth Ohio, and before he was 18 was captain of his company. Coming out of the war at 19, he attended school at the Wesleyan university, Delaware, O., and also graduated from Cornell university.

In 1869 he was admitted to the bar at Cincinnati, and was elected judge of the superior court in 1870. He resigned from the bench in three years, owing to ill-health.

In 1883 he was nominated for governor of Ohio by the Republicans, but was defeated by the Democratic candidate, Judge Hoadly. In 1885 he was again nominated and elected governor, and was re-elected in 1887. This makes his fourth nomination for governor.

Supreme Judge.

The first ballot was as follows: Forker, 267; Kennedy, 127; Dawes, 96; O'Neal, 59; Lampson, 89; Jones, 99; Morey, 47; Vance, 45; Neil, 37; Gibson, 23; Bishnell, 1.

There were 928 delegates in the convention, 415 votes being necessary to effect a nomination. Every vote for Forker on the first ballot was loudly applauded, but the convention was not stampeded, as there was an evident disposition to give all candidates a fair chance.

LAW.

I send my letter "Law," as of old, though residing on my farm out of town.

A new insect has put in appearance in our wheat fields here. It is small and looks gaudy appearance, and in the west is called green bug. Am not certain that the name is correct, for, after an examination with a microscope, I am of the opinion that this would be a better name. It has not been determined whether they will injure the wheat or not, but I am of the opinion that, where they are numerous, the grain will be shriveled and imperfect. As many fifty and even more may be found on a head, and I am told that they may be found in some out fields. The only finding in spite from some cause.

Corn on up-hands will not be generally good, and on river bottom will be the best, unless injured later by excessive rains. Thus far it has been impossible to cultivate it on high lands, while on the low lands it has been well tended.

Wheat will ripen about the 10th, and possibly some in a few days prior to that date.

The is unfavorable weather for making clover hay, but still some are at it. I find eighty acres of clover, but sold some of it for two dollars per acre—cheaper than it can be raised.

Harvest and all pressing business with farmers is coming in a heap.

I have been scarcely able to keep up for a week past, and am no better now.

Wool and sheep are coming up. I sold in my letter at the commencement of wool buying that wool would get up to thirty-three cents.

What keeps low, but the next crop will average eighty-five cents to one dollar in Ohio if managed well, I think.

Low prices will prevail generally for the next two years with farmers, and no legitimate returns, wages, merchants' profits, mechanics' prices, doctors' fees, etc., must all be reduced to correspond. This is legitimate and proper, fair and honest, and when brought about all will be satisfied, with such as are willing to deal fairly, and all such will prosper as well as they did when prices were higher. Such as willingly renounce themselves to this rule, without being compelled to do so by the force of circumstances, will be most likely to prosper.

I sold two bushels of two acres of clover, mowed, and I found that he took a scythe and mowed it and is making the hay. It is not enough, however, that would or could do that.

Dr. Sawyer and W. E. Parker are in attendance at the state convention.

Minister to Germany.

William Walter Phelps Secures That Appointment.

HE WILL QUALIFY AT ONCE.

But Will Not Start for the Fatherland for Some Time Yet—Secretary Tracy Said—Other Dispatches from the National Capital.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The president has appointed William Walter Phelps minister to Germany. When the appointment was announced at the White House, the newly made diplomatist was in Walker Blaine's office at the state department. News of the appointment spread rapidly about the building, and many department officers and others, who knew Mr. Phelps, hastened to tender their congratulations. Walker Blaine seemed happier over the appointment than ever. Mr. Blaine himself, and his few fairly learned when he gave the latter's commission to its owner.

Mr. Phelps will qualify at once, but it is probable that he will remain in this country for some time arranging his affairs preparatory to leaving for Berlin. The president also appointed the following named postmasters: David C. Greiner, at Terre Haute, Ind.; vice John F. Reagan, removed; Philip Wilhelm at Seymour, Ind.; vice Alexander A. Davison, removed; Allen Randolph, at Vincennes, Ind.; vice James B. Buckley, who composed it.

Secretary Tracy Said.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—George B. Ormsby, San Joaquin in the navy, has brought suit in the supreme court of the district against Secretary Tracy for $100,000 damages for trespass incident to his recent imprisonment at Mare Island, Cal., his trial by court-martial and his dismissal from the service. Ormsby alleges that there were not sufficient grounds for his removal, no authority for his long imprisonment, and that he was not furnished with copies of the charges and specifications against him, and that in various ways the defendant violated the revised statutes in conducting his case.

Ormsby alleges that the orders said to have been disobeyed by him were illegal and oppressive to the last degree. The papers in the suit were served on Secretary Tracy yesterday afternoon. The secretary turned the bill over to the judge advocate general for review.

Court-Martial Arrested.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Chief Bell, of the secret service, has been informed that James H. Cables has been arrested at Lockport, N. Y., for passing a counterfeited $10 note. When arrested there was found on his person counterfeit coin and paper money. He was held in default of bail. Cables was formerly connected with "Dye's Counterfeit Detector" publication. Chief Bell also received a telegram from Agent Harris, a Canadian Pacific Railway policeman, of San Francisco, Cal., saying that he arrested in that city William Stein, for dealing in counterfeit coin and captured $20 in counterfeit, fifty cents silver pieces.

CROP PROSPECTS.

A favorable outlook for Winter Wheat, Corn Backward.

TOMORROW, June 27.—G. A. King & Company's annual crop circular was issued yesterday. Their reports cover the states of Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas and Missouri, and the circular says: The present outlook for winter wheat is very favorable. Kansas and Missouri report the best prospect at the depot on the day of the arrest. The remand was then granted. Burke was nervous and excited.

J. M. Louise Red Clover Co., Detroit. Two years I was afflicted with a very severe attack of Erysipelas. After two physicians had used their treatment for several weeks and I continued growing rapidly worse, being by this time completely blind, and in their diagnosis concluded that there was no earthly help or hope for me. I gave up, having tried all the remedies I knew or heard of. My neighbor, Mr. Miller, came in to see me one day, and said try Lowe's Extract Red Clover. As he had known of it working remarkable cures, I told him I had lost hope, that nothing would do me any good in this world, he insisted, and taking his hat went to the drugstore and bought me one bottle and urged me to try it, which I did. Ten days afterwards I sent for two more bottles and it was wonderful how I improved. I continued using it, and today I am better than I have been in years. No sign of Erysipelas has shown itself, and I heartily recommend it to suffering humanity as the greatest and best blood purifier in existence.

The Cronin Grand Jury

Resumes Investigating the Murder Case.

THE WITNESSES EXAMINED.

One Mysterious Individual Who Is Believed to Be the Author of the Exposure Letter—Burke Once More in Court—Not Anxious About Cooney.

CHICAGO, June 27.—The grand jury has resumed the inquiry into the Cronin case. The first witness was Dr. J. P. Case, who lives on Milwaukee avenue. The doctor testified that he had a fast horse which Dan Coughlin and Burke, shortly before the murder, tried to hire for all night service. He insisted that they put up $100 guarantee that the animal would be returned in good condition, but this was refused and the men departed in anything but good humor.

Dr. Case identified a picture of Burke as that of Coughlin's companion Patrick O'Brien, a State street saloon-keeper. J. B. Bell, of the Western Union, and representatives of the Postal Telegraph company were also called as witnesses.

W. F. Lynn testified to having seen Coughlin in close conversation with Maj. Sampson, whose story that the detective offered him money to "do up" Cronin was one of the sensational features of the inquiry. Nothing new or sensational was revealed by the testimony of Mr. O'Brien or the representatives of the telegraph companies. An unknown man was brought before the jury by Capt. Scheatter, and it was said he was the author of the anonymous letters received by the state's attorney, giving information of the "Inner Circle" of camp 29, and conspirators who composed it.

NOT ANXIOUS ABOUT COONEY.

Chief of Police Hubbard now admits that the authorities are not particularly anxious to find Patrick Cooney, for whom he sent his officers on a wild goose chase down into Indiana last week. This change of front is due to the fact that none of the witnesses have been able to identify his picture, and that there is nothing against him except the fact that he is a friend of Burke's.

BURKE AGAIN IN COURT.

WISCONSIN, June 27.—Burke was arraigned before Judge Bain yesterday, and again remanded until Tuesday. Counselor W. L. Pendleton demanded his immediate discharge on the ground that no evidence was forthcoming to substantiate the information upon which he was arrested. Judge Bain ruled that when the United States demanded the extradition of a man charged with crime all reasonable delay should be allowed to permit the authorities of that nation to prove the claim. Detective Colling of Chicago, testified as to Burke's identity, and McKinnon, a Canadian Pacific Railway policeman, gave evidence regarding his suspicious actions at the depot on the day of the arrest. The remand was then granted. Burke was nervous and excited.

McCabe, Capt. Fisher and his bride of eight months and Fielder Bowler, a seaman, were drowned. Mate O. S. Bowen, of the Knight, stated that there was no one at the wheel of the steamer and nobody on her deck.

He charged also that the captain of the steamer made no effort to save the lives on the schooner, but steamed away as rapidly as possible as soon as Bowen and the other seamen clambered aboard. No effort was made either to recover the bodies of the drowned.

A Quiet Wedding.

Mr. Delbert Benedict, of near Ashley, and Miss M. Gate Straub, for the past year teacher in the Central School building in this city, were quietly married at the residence of Mrs. McDaniel, at Prospect, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Hill, of the Prospect M. E. church. The wedding was arranged quietly, but the "Pedestrian Club" of this city had anticipated the intentions of the worthy couple, and instituted a surprise. With that expectation they drove to Prospect in time for the ceremony, and Miss Anna Hobbs was chosen impromptu to do the graces of bridesmaid, while Jim McMurray acted as groomsman. The bridal couple were serenaded by the club and were presented with a testimonial of their regard.

Mr. and Mrs. Benedict left for Cleveland, and after a short tour will return to the home of the gentleman's parents near Ashley, in which locality they will make their home in future.

The Strat desires to join in the sincere wishing for the future happiness of Mr. and Mrs. Benedict.

Tourists.

Whether on pleasure bent or business, should take on every trip a bottle of Syrup of Figs, as it acts most pleasantly and effectively on the kidneys, liver and bowels, preventing fevers, headaches and other forms of sickness. For sale in 50c and $1.00 bottles by all leading druggists.

Deaths.

Mrs. W. P. Burley is visiting Paterson, O. Elmer Drake and Sam Patterson were at Marion on W. Tuesday.

William Burley has returned from an extended visit in the west.

Miss Maggie Maropus, of Marion, is visiting the home of her uncle, Wm. Bain.

Messrs. Meeks, Tongue and Schweinfurth, of Ely City, were in town this week on business.

The general Billy Guston, of LaRue, was in Marion last Tuesday on business.

Are we to have a Sunday school picnic or not? And why not? Now is the time to decide.

Several of our people took in the new and oil fields at Lima this week.

Postmaster Mohr smiles again. It is a boy, and the cigar boxes flew freely.

D. H. Clifton and Link Morral have about finished buying wool. The clip is small this year.

George Buddle, of Huntington, was here over Sunday to see his wife and babies, who are guests of Mrs. S. Corwin's.

Wreathed congratulations to our friend Parker, of LaRue. Make them tick their own stamps, Judge.

We will go the editor of the Star a box of eggs that Kilian White Sullivan, if they light, Exemine or check, please.

We say so positively that Postmaster Mohr will stay—we mean hang on, if he behaves right, which he always does.

Dave Birch was honorably acquitted by the jury of slander, claimed by Sam Myers, who added $100 damages.

J. H. Barn has been engaged to teach the Deaf-Chair schools the coming year, this making his second full term here.

Kellogg's Collin's men and teams went to Lima last week to work on the big new cut of the Standard Oil company. This hole will take in thirteen acres of ground and be forty feet deep.

We have examined some of the wheat infected by the new insect (name unknown), but could not perceive that it was damaged any. However, some farmers claim that the insects are sucking the juice from the kernel, which will shrink it and result in a poor quality of grain.

Last year's wool averaged in this neighborhood twenty-four cents. This year it will average thirty cents. These averages were given direct from our buyers, who ought to know.

Dallas Day, deputy auditor of Marion county, was here last Saturday on legal business. He remained over Sabbath with his venerable and respected father, Samuel Day. Allow us to predict that Dad will be the next auditor.

Harsch has commenced—timely and clever are being cut, and wheat comes most and then out, all of which look extremely well in the vicinity. We think that we will run above the average. We think that we do not know it too much, as we are two weeks behind, but it is growing fast and has a good color.

The following table told by an eastern exchange contains a suggestive moral:

Down in Indiana a man went out hunting. While he was out there came up a big rain and he sought shelter in a hollow log. The log soon became soaked with water and swelled until the aperture was too small for the man to get out again. There he was in a dilemma. He quickly reviewed his past life, and when he came to remember that he was not a subscriber to his country paper he tore so small that he crawled out of the log without any trouble."

—Carlisle Independent: The officers and executive committee of the Ohio State Farmer's Alliance held a meeting at Clifton Friday, for the purpose of planning the work for the good of the organization. On account of the illness of President Smith, Vice President W. H. Likins presided, and a large amount of routine work was accomplished. C. H. Wood, of Mt. Gilead, was appointed organizer for Morrow county, W. H. Likins for Marion county, and John Jones of Martel, for Crawford county, with full information of the workings and progress of the alliance. Many enthusiastic speeches were made and every one present expressed the fullest confidence in the future usefulness and growth of the organization of the alliance.
